GC Hires Traffic Safety Engineer

$4000 Contract OK'd For Study to Improve Traffic Flow in City

Employment of a traffic engineer, with a $4000-year contract was unanimously approved Tuesday night by Granite City council members who are anxious to cut back on the 10-per-mile stop signs throughout the city and to reduce the 4.3-day traffic accident average.

Hired to do the job is George L. Crawford of Springfield, a former state highway department safety engineer who in past years has aided the city with traffic problems. Mayor Parney said Crawford was the only traffic engineer recommended by the AAA Club, the state highway department and the city's new Traffic Study Commission.

Under his contract, Crawford is to spend 10 to 15 days studying existing traffic problems at the outset and then to be here at least two days a month for follow-up work. He is to work closely with the new Traffic Study Commission, headed by Dale Arnette, local businessman. Arnette said the commission also highly recommended the employment of Crawford.

Engineer's Duties
Crawford's duties for the $1000-a-year services will be to determine the applicability of existing traffic controls to the current traffic patterns and to evaluate and improve such traffic systems as major streets, one-way streets and street signs.

He also is to analyze all street and intersection locations and establish an accident prevention program to aid in reducing accidents and pinpointing the danger spots.

In addition he will supervise the maintenance of all traffic control devices in the city and train city personnel in their operation and maintenance. Crawford and his staff also will train school crossing guards in their duties.

Pay Scales for Staff
The traffic safety engineer's rate of pay is to be $12.50 per hour and his staff is to include technicians and clerical assistants with $6-a-day pay rates and a stenographer, $5-a-day.

Crawford and his staff are to aid the city's new Traffic Study Commission in determining access permits for driveways, possible zoning changes, fire lanes and detours.

Alderman Bartelski asked Mayor Parney if any other traffic engineers had been considered for the job.

Parney replied that three recommendations were sought from the automobile club and from the state highway department.

The AAA recommended one, three—Crawford, Crawford and Crawford; and so did the state, he said.

Boys Play 'Injuns,' Chased to 'Teepees'
Police received a report that four active boys were bothering their homes and arriving at 12:20 a.m. today at 4610 Rockwell Avenue, and policemen reported that the "contacted the Injuns and sent them to their teepees."

There was no contact on two other reports of boys shooting firecrackers at 10:05 p.m. at 2217 East 24th street and at 10:25 p.m. at 2217 Monroe avenue last night.

Vandals Damage Auto
John Ellis, 18, said today that while his 1964 car was parked at 21st and Adams streets from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, vandals threw rocks and cinders at it, denting the right side at the rear.

BIRTHS..
Births recorded at St. Elizabeth Hospital: GIRLS
Mr. and Mrs. William Hawkins, 1632 East 23rd street, 11 ounces.
Victoria Dawn, six pounds, 11 ounces.
Mr. and Mrs. Luther Shepherd, 27 Moorland drive, July 6, Sandra Jean, six pounds, 12 ounces.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flougher, 2006 Missouri avenue, July 6, Robin Marie, seven pounds, nine ounces.
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wickham, 13 Briarcliff, July 7, seven pounds, six ounces.
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ross, 2629 East 20th street, July 8, eight pounds, 13 ounces.

Personal Liability Insurance Viewed As an Essential

(Sixth of a series)

All forms of the homeowner insurance policy, which was described in the previous article, provide personal liability coverage. This is not merely an "extra" or "luxury."

Personal liability insurance is viewed by authorities as a "must" for the typical Quad-City family, the Joneses.

It protects Mr. and Mrs. Jones from claims that arise when people injure themselves at the Jones home or when the Jones property suffers damage while they are on the Jones premises.

Whether at the Jones home or away from it, in which injuries to other persons or damages to their property are the result of Mr. Jones' actions or the actions of any member of his family.

In addition, the insurance company agrees to pay the cost of defending its clients when they are sued for damages payable under the policy. This service is provided even though the claim is groundless, false or fraudulent.

Expensive Coverage
Personal liability coverage is expensive, and it provides broad coverage for a family of the household. It is automatically included in all forms of the homeowner policy, but it may be purchased separately.

All types of homeowner policy have three liability insurance coverages, which are listed as follows: Comprehensive Personal Liability, Medical Payments and Physical Damage to Property of Others.

Comprehensive Personal Liability protects the Joneses from claims arising from bodily injury to others or damage to their property. Suppose Mrs. Brown slips and falls on the Jones steps, suffers a head injury that impairs her vision and files suit for damages. The insurance firm will represent the Joneses in court; if the verdict goes against them, damages will be paid by the insurance up to the limits of the policy.

Usually limit on the homeowner policy is $25,000, but this can be increased.

Legal Liability
It should be noted that a claim such as this is not paid by the insurance company; it is established that the insured is legally liable. It is not necessary, however, to sue the insured.

Under Medical Payments or Physical Damage Coverage
Medical payments coverage provides protection when persons are accidentally hurt on or away from the Jones property. If the injury is caused by Mr. Jones, members of his family or his animals.

The company reimburses the injured party, Smith, regardless of who is at fault, for medical and surgical expenses incurred within one year of the accident. Basic amount of such protection is $500 for each person.

Damage to Property of Others Insurance
Physical Damage to Property of Others insurance protects in cases where the Joneses damage someone else's property.

If a football kicked by young Tommy Jones accidentally crashes through a window.

Six-Month Report
The number of births, deaths and stillbirths during the first half of this year increased over the same period of a year ago.

The city clerk's office reported this week that during June there were 86 births in the area, 46 deaths and one stillbirth.

These increased to 314 the total number of births so far this year, to 222 the number of deaths and to 12 the total number of stillbirths.

For June 1964, the office reported 73 births, 39 deaths and three stillbirths. In 1963, the total for the first half of 1963 to 486 births, 19 deaths and eight stillbirths.

Board Atty. John Sprague commented: "If the Legislature would have passed the legislation, this kind of thing could have been solved."

"But they didn't," Ebersoldt replied. "So we ought to do something about it. Maybe a law would make the difference."

Bill Died in Senate
The second issue proposal, which was introduced with no public notice, would have given the leave board power to use $5,000 in Quad-City and East St. Louis area property taxes without a vote of approval by voters. The bill passed the House but died in the Senate.

The provision was actually being cost estimated by the district. Engineer Kraemer said Kraemer had listed the leave district's share of the project at $6,247,000 with the federal government's share to be $6,180,000.

BOLT OF LIGHTNING early yesterday caused a damaging blaze at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Carich, 2520 Wilshire Manor. About the same time another bolt hit a home in the Garber addition, touching off a blaze.

Mr. and Mrs. Carich are shown with their son, Ronald, 6, and his bicycle that was the only item saved from the garage. The family auto was in the driveway. [Other pictures on page 5.]

$1,016,807 Chicago Scrap Metal Firm To Set Up Plant In Area

New GC Building In June

78 Permits Include New Park School, Four Homes To Church, Additions

Construction activity topped the million-dollar mark during June in Granite City as 78 building permits listed values totaling $1,016,807.

Values for the first half of the year total $5,433,249 in 348 permits, already ahead of all of 1964 when $6,445,779 in new construction was started.

Except for May, when a Granite City Steel Co. permit boosted values to $6,367,860, the only previous month in recent years to top a million dollars was last December on the strength of Granite City's new sewage treatment plant.

The biggest permit in June was the $550,000 Parkway elementary school, in addition to a $180,000 addition to Central Christian Church.

Eight permits, including the church and school, had values of $250,000 or more. They were: Central Industrial, 10, $163,402; new homes, four, $65,000; additions to homes, three, $7500; garages and carports, 19, $19,885; and remodeling and repairs, $31,882.

Three more permits were issued to rare structures at a cost of $1200.

Storage Warehouse

11 Undergo Surgery At Local Hospital
The following are recovering at St. Elizabeth Hospital from surgery which they underwent Tuesday:

Charles Carney, Collinsville; Kathryn Bank, 2116 Adams street; Lillian Bess, Cassville; Vickie Sney, 2932 Warren avenue; John DeGonia, 2536 Iowa street; Edna Reynolds, 2212 Missouri street.

Canoe, Cashews Among Theft Loot
Thieves who showed little concern for the type of loot they stole made off with a variety of items, this week, including a canoe, a cashew nut machine and a 17-foot canoe.

A cashew nut machine was stolen from the office of the Belleville Cities Service station, 3200 Namolei road, during the weekend, apparently while the attendant was busy on the lot. It was reported at 7:35 p.m. Tuesday.

A new 17-foot aluminum canoe was stolen from the Granite City Boat & Motor Co., 2402 Madison avenue, last Sunday or Monday. It was reported Tuesday afternoon.

A tan billfold containing a silver dollar and papers was missing from a bedroom dresser drawer at the home of Mildred Walker, 1725a Delmar avenue, on July 1, she reported Tuesday. A yellow gold watch valued at $135 was stolen from the garage at the home of Roy Hutton, 4028 Route avenue, on Tuesday, it was reported at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Lightning Sets 2 Homes Ablaze, $17-$20,000 Loss

Both Alarms Sounded Within Five Minutes In Electrical Storm

Two early-morning fires Wednesday in the Long Lake fire district, resulting in damage of $8000 to $10,000 at one residence and $9000 to $10,000 at another.

The two alarms were received by the Long Lake volunteer fire department within five minutes, the first at 4:45 a.m. and the second at 4:55 a.m. Both residences damaged were in the $28,000 price class.

The first alarm sent volunteers to the home of William T. Hopper, 2312 Gary avenue, where the fire apparently started in a den against a wall in a den-room of an attached garage. The second alarm was sent to the home of George Carich, 2520 Wilshire Manor, where fire started and gained rapidly in the front of a garage, also attached to the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopper and their daughter, Cheryl, fled the house through a bedroom window. Because of the dense smoke they were unable to locate the fire and took no chances of encountering the flames in the front part of the house.

The fires occurred during an electrical storm that continued throughout most of the night and followed heavy 1.38-inch rainfall in the area several hours earlier. The rain had subsided at the time the fire alarms were turned in.

Lightning Overloads Wiring
When Lake Erie Chief Jack Harper said the origin of the fire in the Hopper home, which was caused by a lightning strike to the room and into part of the house where the garage is attached, he was attributed to a lightning strike that overloaded the wiring and set fire to the contents of the room.

In addition to the estimated $8000 to $10,000 damage to the building and contents, Harper said there was considerable smoke damage inside the rest of the house where approximately $5000 worth of new draperies had been installed only a day before the fire.

The first alarm was turned in, two of the three trucks of the Long Lake department were dispatched to the fire at the Hopper residence.

As the second alarm for the Carich home was received, minutes later, firemen on standby duty took out the third truck to the Carich residence where the fire was raging.

Most of the roof over the garage was damaged and the house was damaged. Damage to building and contents was estimated at $9000.

Damage to the house was estimated at $10,000 with additional smoke damage inside the house.

Save Bicycle
When firemen at the Hopper residence got that fire under control, one of the two trucks was rushed to the Carich home to aid firemen at that blaze.

At the Carich home, about the only item saved from the gutting garage was Ron Ronald's bicycle, which was pulled out of the burning garage by Mr. Carich. At the Hopper home, the heat from the fire was so intense that candles in a wall bracket melted away the wicks and the wicks were almost entirely melted away, leaving only the wicks hanging.

While the fire destroyed nearly everything in the den room at the Hopper residence, even burning away the wallpaper, a television set appeared almost unharmed.

Fire Chief Harper said the fire at the Carich residence obviously was started by lightning because the damage was done in a few minutes where it struck the house near the roof and at the point of origin of the fire.

20 Firemen Called
Twenty Long Lake volunteer firemen were at the scene of the two fires until about 7 a.m.

Both fires occurred within a short time after heavy rains caused the Quad-City area to be in a state of emergency. The rain was maintained by the U.S. Corps of Army Engineers showed a total rainfall of 1.38 inches during the early morning hours.

Some heavy winds accompanied the rain, but there were few reports of fallen tree limbs or other wind damage. Hall also reported.

Granite City police noted a smoking transformer at 18th and 20th streets.

May Be Different
Garbage and trash collections by Granite City's new contractor are being carried out on the same daily schedule as under the old contractor, but the hour of collection will be different. The new firm's trucks start out each morning at 7 o'clock and will follow the exact hour-by-hour time schedule, but we are making collections under the same daily schedule for sections of the city, the spokesman said.

The new collector which is operating three trucks with two-man crews has subscribed to a telephone answering service. The number is TR 6-4828.

GC Auto License Sticker Is Passport to City Dump
A city auto sticker is a Granite City's passport to the renovated city dump, and any Granite City can take refuse there between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. daily, except Sunday, without their own.

Partney said that the city has been making this practice to be continued.

Operators of two bulldozers now in the process of converting the open dump to a landfill operation will direct Granite City vans to locations where debris, trash or tree limbs may be dumped.

Outsiders will be permitted to use the city dump, Mayor Partney stressed. It has been estimated the city dump will last another six to eight months, and then the garbage contractor, National Disposal Corp., will provide another landfill site under its $122,745-a-year contract.

The second bulldozer was moved in this week by National Disposal in compliance with a state order that the city clean up the dump and stamp out smoldering fires.

The dump looks good now, Mayor Partney commented. "You wouldn't recognize it if you haven't been there for several weeks."

Payment of Engineering Bill Reaffirmed by GC Council

Based on a legal opinion submitted by City Atty. Allen J. Granite City council members made no change in last week's decision to proceed with payment of $2714 to the engineering firm of David J. Johnston & Associates for work on the 23rd and Adams streets drainage and trolley track removal project.

Alderman Moerlein, who has challenged the legality of payments to the firm as a city consulting engineer and also for special projects, had requested Mayor Farney to hold up the payment for a week to await the legal opinion.

Allen ruled the city was obligated to pay the fee, but pointed out he was not satisfied with the engineering procedures carried out by the previous city administration. The new administration has not yet hired a consulting engineer, but is interviewing applicants for the post.

There is an outstanding bill of $2714. I recommend that this bill be paid from, for example, sales tax, so that there can be no question that no further payment is being made to David Johnston & Associates as public engineer.

GC Police Want To Keep Officer As Records Clerk

Granite City police are voicing objections to a city budget proposal to replace the records clerk, a member of the police department, with a woman secretary.

City officials are considering the move to free another policeman for other police functions, including patrol, but officers claim that the presence of a police officer as records clerk is often a necessity in operations of the police station.

The records clerk now is utilized to escort prisoners to the magistrate's court and return them to the cell, assist at the police desk, especially when accused persons too great for the desk sergeant to handle alone, and to provide relief for the police sergeant.

The presence of a second police officer at the station is required to prevent the possible escape of prisoners, policemen maintain.

They also cite the function of the records section in a four-year-old report by Dr. Seymour Z. Mann, director of public administration and metropolitan affairs for Northwestern Illinois University, who termed the records function "the most important staff aid to the chief of police, the other command officers and the members of the department."

"It is recommended," the report stated, "that the officer in charge of the records division be given rank which will be commensurate with his duties and responsibilities. The position should carry the rank of sergeant and an examination should be given to obtain a qualified man for the job. The present records officer would probably qualify... The present records officer has done a good job of keeping the present records system in order."

"Following are the facts as I have them as to David Johnston & Associates' position as public engineer."

"The office of public engineer was established Sept. 21, 1964, and that an annual fee of $8500 was set. Apparently the appointment was never approved by the city council and Mayor Davis did not properly re-appoint Mr. Johnston to serve 30-day terms. (The appointment should have been resubmitted every 30 days to the council. It is my understanding that this was not done.)"

Municipal League Findings

"Further, in the light of the information received from the Municipal League of Illinois, a firm cannot be designated as the 'public engineer,' therefore, David Johnston & Associates could not be the public engineer."

"As properly done, one person from the firm must be designated as an engineer in some state. Apparently there is no evidence that Mr. Al Pearson, who evidently has been serving as the public engineer, is licensed in any state, so we have a situation of an improper appointment... There seemed to be no question that David Johnston & Associates is not the public engineer for Granite City and should receive no remuneration as such."

"We now come to the problem of the payment for the work on 23rd street. Through the kind offices of the city clerk, I have learned that on Dec. 21, 1964, the council authorized 'the city engineer' to draw plans and specifications to install sewers on 23rd street from Adams to State streets."

"The sum of $54,000 was set up in the appropriation in the past year for that job. Subsequent minutes show that the council accepted reports from Mr. Al Pearson, indicating that

GI Insurance Requests Exceed Forecast

Applications for the re-opened GI insurance which went on sale May 1, have already exceeded Veterans Administration estimates, reports from across the country show.

The VA had expected to process 80,000 applications for policies by the middle of June. However, the VA received more than 90,000 applications for the new policies.

Eligible veterans are those with service-connected disabilities or, where the disability is non-service-connected, those who are so disabled they cannot obtain commercial insurance at the highest rates.

Veterans will have until midnight May 2, 1965, to obtain new policies. Further information may be obtained at any VA office.

Police Will Double Radar Attacks Against Speeders

Double efforts to curb speeding violations in Granite City will be started soon, and "speeders beware" warning was issued Tuesday night by Alderman Samuel Whitmer, chairman of the police committee.

The council authorized purchase of a second radar unit based on bids presented Tuesday night. The final decision will be based on a recommendation by the city's radio engineer.

Whitmer pointed out police have stepped up the operation of the one radar unit in recent months, and it is hoped that

Council's Plan Committee Gets Redistricting Task

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

The unwelcome task of redistricting the city's 25 voting precincts and possible revamping of the eight ward boundaries was handed the Granite City council's Planning committee Tuesday night.

The reluctant committee members—Aldermen Paul Rutledge, Charles Morelen and G. H. Sternberg—plan to confer with Township Supervisor Nelson Hagauer and the county board on conformity of city and township voting precincts to get the double-voting nuisance straightened out by next June—prior to the April 1967 city election.

Changes in voting precincts on the county-township level can be carried out only by the county board and are limited by state law to June or July. In this year's city election, a large number of Granite Cityans had to travel to three different voting places to carry out their privilege of voting—the city polling place, the township polling place and the park district polling place.

In years past, the city and township precincts were the same, but then city voting precincts were designated and complications set in.

Need Funds for Census
Chairman Rutledge urged the council to include funds amounting to $6000 to $8000 for a special census with block-by-block counts in order to equalize population within ward boundaries.

Alderman Whitmer expressed displeasure with the appointment of the council committee. "It's going to be a rough job, and I thought a committee outside the city administration was to be named to do the job. An aldermanic committee can get the die favor of the other aldermen."

There is a possibility that with redistricting, the city will be forced by state law to return to seven wards rather than keep the present eight. For years, the council has discussed the consolidation of the smaller downtown area wards in order to split the ever-growing larger 14th, Seventh and Eighth wards.

Confer With County
Moerlen pointed out it would be a waste of time for the city to proceed with redistricting without conferring with county authorities.

"We don't know what they have in mind for the township precincts in Granite City, and if we make changes, the board of supervisors could also and we'd be right back where we are now with confusion for the voters," he remarked.

Rutledge urged the inclusion of special census funds in the new budget to make the task easier for the committee. Appointment of Mayor Farney's selection of a committee was approved by the council. Moerlen declined to vote.

Dinner Here to Honor Officials Of SWIU Campus

Plans were made by the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce board Tuesday night to invite SWIU-SWU university officials to a "get acquainted" and recognition dinner. The new Quad-Cities-Edwardsville campus is to be opened this fall.

Tentative date of the banquet is July 28. About 23 university representatives will be invited, with at least that number attending from the Chamber.

Harold R. Fischer, a member of the university board of trustees, is chairman of the Chamber's university liaison committee, which is handling the dinner arrangements.

In a report to the Chamber directors, Fischer said the university is cooperating with the Illinois Board of Higher Education in studying the feasibility of new medical school facilities in the southern half of the state.

The Chamber is contacting new SWIU staff members to welcome them to this area.

Plans to be Toured

Chamber Vice-President Howard W. Kaseberg announced that an "Industry Visits the Farm" day is planned this summer, tentatively on Aug. 31.

One or more buses will take representatives of local business firms on a four-hour tour of a grain farm, vegetable farm, livestock farm and possibly another farm. A luncheon is planned along with demonstrations and explanations of Quad-City farming operations. During the bus ride, University of Illinois farm management authorities will explain what is being seen.

School Supt. R. J. Johnson said attorneys are studying the proposed transfer of the former downtown post office to the Granite City park district. A trip to Chicago is planned in connection with the transfer.

Optimistic reports were presented regarding "prospects for early action on widening of N. Macoski road and construction of an overpass necessary for southward extension of the new riverfront highway."

President Carl E. Mathias announced results of a poll of directors, resulting in forwarding of a resolution to Gov. Kerrigan. "The resolution recommended continuation of the Lewis & Clark Memorial Park as a historical landmark but opposed large scale expansion as blocking industrial development and job opportunities."

Sternberg Appointed
Mathias appointed Gene H. Sternberg as chairman of the Civic Improvement and Development Committee, succeeding Nicholas R. Brink.

Louis B. Reilly, executive vice-president of the First National Bank in Madison, was named to an unexpired term as a Chamber director, for the 1965-66 year.

One other board vacancy is to be filled.

E. R. Appligate will serve as Chamber Ambassador chairman, replacing Michael Rafferty, who has been transferred from this community.

E. A. Karandjoff, W. F. Hoelscher, E. G. Schmitt, Dale Arnette and Homer Hubley were appointed to submit nominations for Chamber director posts.

Committee chairmen reported. Included Sam L. Meyer, Congressional action and Chamber-Relations discussions; James G. Holland, membership; Howard D. Wellman, citizenship; William F. Winter, education; E. G. Schmitt, industrial development; Melvin O. McKay, transportation and highways; and Dale Arnette, membership relations.

National Dispense Corp. was accepted as a Chamber member. It was noted that meetings have been held with the past month with new members and with light industry representatives.

DEATH RATE CLIMBS ON STATE HIGHWAYS

Rotarians Told

Traffic deaths on Illinois streets and highways have been increasing steadily during the past two years and should cause concern on the part of the public, Sgt. H. J. Schweitzer of the state police district headquarters told members of the Granite City Rotary Club at a luncheon meeting Tuesday at the YMCA.

Speaking on "Traffic Safety Is Big Business," Sergeant Schweitzer noted that the state previously had been effective in cutting down the traffic fatality rate but that it again is on the upswing.

In 1957, he said, 2960 persons were killed. In 1963, this dropped to 1725, but in 1964, there were 2207 fatalities as a result of 281,000 accidents, and the number has reached 381 this year as of July 4.

Causes of Crashes
The causes of many accidents today, he said, are excessive speed, disobedience of drivers to signs and signals, open defiance of traffic laws, drinking drivers and lack of courtesy among drivers.

In a 3½-hour period last week in the Litchfield area, Sgt. Schweitzer said that 35 speeding arrests were made through use of an airplane alone. He added that unmarked cars and regular patrol cars also were used.

During the last two years the loss of life has been on the increase at rail crossings, the state policeman said, as drivers try to beat the trains.

Out Through Courtesy
If the people were more courteous, the accident rate could be cut by 30%, he said, and the public should be more concerned.

A visiting Rotarian was Robert Miller of Shelton, Wash., a former resident of Granite City. William Hoebeck, new club president, conducted the first meeting of the new Rotary year.

Applicants are not required to take a written test, but will be rated on their experience and education.

Persons interested in these examinations must file application Form 57 and Card 5001 ABC with the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Department of Agriculture, Soil Conservation Service, Washington, D. C.

Further information and necessary application forms may be obtained from the executive secretary at the address shown above, or the local post offices.

SWIMAPC May Seek U.S. Air Pollution Funds

Theodore Miksel, executive director of the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, may seek a federal grant for a study of garbage and refuse disposal problems of the Quad-Cities and East St. Louis, it was announced today.

Noting air pollution caused by burning at dumps operated by the cities, he said the problem has become an immediate one as the communities have been ordered to stop all burning by Sept. 15 by the state air pollution control board.

Police were notified at 5:42 a.m. Wednesday that a manhole cover was off at East 23rd and August street. The street department was notified.

The rainfall put several feet of water in the excavation for the new Karandjeff building in the 1200 block of Niedringhaus avenue, and pumps were used Wednesday morning to empty it. Workmen were unable to proceed with excavating work until the area could be dried out.

One point on Highway 162 was flooded by runoff from Judy Creek about a half mile west of Peters Station, but was reported to have drained rapidly after the rain stopped.

$31,793 Dental Research Grant Given SIU

To finance the second year of a five-year, $160,200 oral microbiology training program at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, the National Institute of Dental Research, U. S. Public Health Service, has allocated $31,793 to Isaac L. Sheehy, SIU microbiologist, for 1965-66.

A new phase of the program for next year is the inclusion of $3000 to bring two trainees from dental schools here for summer study, Sheehy said.

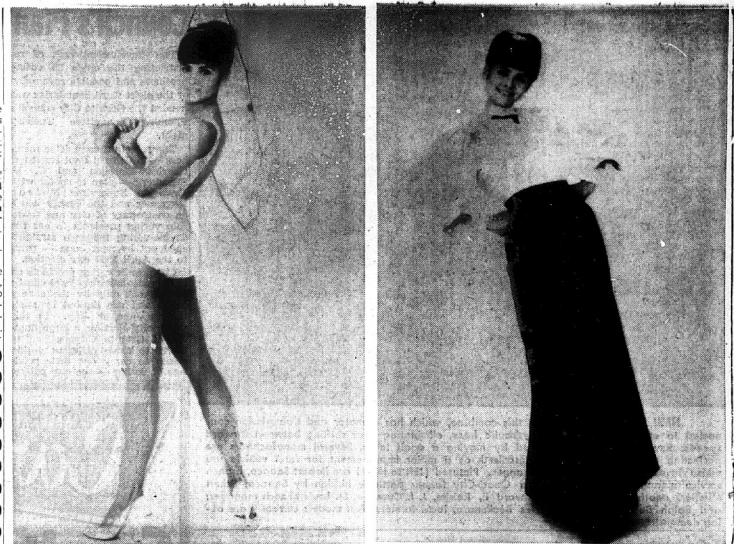

The program provides stipends for a post-doctoral student with a doctor of dental science degree and two pre-doctoral graduate students for work toward the Ph.D. degree in microbiology. The two pre-doctoral students who held the traineeships during the past year have been reappointed for 1965-66—Joe Strecker

Levee District Valuation Set At $525,097,518

Property in the East Side Levee and Sanitary District has an assessed valuation of $525,097,518, according to a report sent to Madison county clerk Eulalia Hotz yesterday.

Ben Campbell, chief clerk of the levee district, said the 1964 figure was "within $1000 of the previous year's." The valuation includes $304,508,331 in St. Clair county and $220,670,650 in Madison county.

He said the valuation of the district's property, to continue his work under Sheehy, and Paul Watkins of Hurst, to continue under McClary's supervision, the post-doctoral traineeship is yet to be filled for 1965-66.

LOVELY KATHY OROS, 1965 Miss Granite City, who will compete next week for the Miss Illinois title in Quincy, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oros, 2841 Washington avenue, who was selected over six other local contestants June 19, in the annual beauty-talent pageant sponsored by the Granite City Jaycees. This photo was sent to Quincy for advance publicity.

Retired as an exceptionally talented young woman, the new Miss Granite City is a speech major at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston.

Kathy Oros Ready to Compete in Miss Illinois Contest

A whirlwind of activity surrounds a lovely brown-eyed Granite City Miss, who will embark next week on five event-filled days which may lead her to the coveted Miss Illinois crown. She is Kathy Oros, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oros, 2841 Washington avenue. Local Jaycees are confident that the future Miss Illinois is the Granite City.

She was selected June 19 over six other local contestants as the 1965 Miss Granite City. In the annual beauty-talent pageant sponsored by the Granite City Junior Chamber of Commerce and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co., of Alton, Miss Oros will leave for Quincy on Monday to prepare for the state contest which begins there Wednesday.

As in the local contest, state finalists are selected by points accumulated in three categories: best appearance in a swimming pool, 25%; best appearance in an evening gown, 25%; and her talent presentation and personality, 50%.

A colorful parade, teas and other forms of entertainment will greet the local finalists from more than 35 communities throughout the state. Next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evening, preliminary contests will be conducted with all of the candidates appearing in one of the three categories each night. Ten semi-finalists will participate Saturday, July 17, evening in all three phases of competition, climaxed with the crowning of the new Miss Illinois.

Each year more than 75,000 young women compete in over 3500 local and state pageants which lead up to the Miss America pageant in Atlantic City, N. J., in September. The winners collect prizes and awards ranging from merchandise and wardrobe certificates to new cars and Jaycee and Pepsi-Cola scholarships. Educational scholarships in excess of $350,000 are annually awarded in the preliminary contests.

Miss Oros will be given a rousing send-off by local Jaycees at her home Monday noon. Several members of the local service club are planning to attend the state pageant later next week. Plans also are being made to send wires of encouragement to the local contestant during her stay in Quincy. Bob Schofield, local pageant chairman, said today.

A contract is expected to be awarded to the Clark Painting Co., Bridgeport, Mo., which submitted the low bid of $20,990 on painting work at apartment units operated by the Granite City Housing Authority.

Six bids were considered by Housing Authority commissioners, Tuesday night. The award subject to provision of a performance bond.

Other quotations were $24,380 by the Roseman Co., Granite City, $25,540 from the Coart Co., Granite City, $26,467 from Hartman-Walsh, St. Louis, $30,323 from Haridge & Son, St. Louis, and $34,297 from Joseph Ward, St. Louis.

The project involves painting all exterior wood, plus steel windows, at the Kirkpatrick-Homes apartments and painting facing boards and overhang section at The Anchorage.

With detailed plans and specifications for a second 100 Anchorage units for the elderly handicapped, the plan was made for a visit July 28 to the Chicago regional office of the U. S. Public Housing Administration.

$20,990 Painting Bid; Plans Readied for 100 Apartments

Final federal approval will be sought at that time.

Housing Authority Executive Director David Morgan, Architects Henry Gabriel and Sylvester Dulgeroff and a mechanical engineer and landscape designer will make the trip to Chicago.

The housing board authorized the Southwest Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission to revise the Granite City master plan as it relates to the city, school district and park district. The four governmental agencies will share the local portion of the cost, with federal taxes providing the remaining funds.

Chairman Walter Pfaff presided at the monthly meeting. Plans were made to announce an annual payment in lieu of taxes at the Aug. 3 meeting. The payment represents a coming up for the lack of real estate taxes on families residing in housing project apartments.

FAMILY LIABILITY INSURANCE—Comprehensive liability, $25,000 for each occurrence; medical payments, $500 for each person; and physical damage to the property of others, $250 for each occurrence.

The $5400 personal property figure, $25,000 comprehensive liability coverage and $500 medical payments amount can be increased if the family wishes.

Premiums for such coverage vary for numerous reasons, including the territory, water supply available for firefighting, efficiency of the fire department, types of construction and other factors.

The Joneses have a swimming pool capable of being filled to a depth of more than 30 inches, as if they own an outboard motor of over 10 horsepower, they can have them covered under their homeowner policy, if they wish. This calls for an additional premium, and these items are not covered unless the family tells its agent specifically to include them in the policy.

Transportation of GC Students Costs $169,790 for Year

Transportation costs in the Granite City school district for the 1964-65 year totaled $169,790, a newly-completed tabulation shows.

Daily average cost was $953 for the 178 days on which students were taken to their schools.

The district hires the Bi-State Transit System to operate buses for youngsters residing more than a mile-and-a-half from the school to which they are assigned.

Costs totaled $776 in August, one day; $18,823 in September, 21 days; $18,838 in October, 20 days; $18,841 in November, 18 days; $13,609 in December, 16 days; $18,296 in January, 19 days; $13,126 in February, 19 days; $21,250 in March, 23 days; $18,567 in April, 18 days; $19,990 in May, 20 days; and $2728 in June, three days.

Junior Highs Head List

Transportation of students to junior high schools resulted in the largest expenditure, $55,541, and elementary routes were close behind at $54,073. Granite City high school bus costs amounted to $59,038.

Although these routes represented $147,653 or 87% of the total outlay, there were expenditures in eight other categories.

These costs included: Logan grade school lunch transportation, $486 (ended in February when dining facilities were provided at the Logan annex); ed-ucable and trainable handicapped pupils, $11,260; special education, $2374; GCIS students special instruction, $641; junior high special instruction, $482; elementary special instruction, $637; high school athletics transportation, $3592; and junior high athletics, $2641.

Venice Board Honors Two; 'Head Start' Class Vacancies

Two former Venice school board members, whose accumulated service with the board totaled 28 years, were honored Tuesday evening by Venice Community Unit School District. Three with the presentation of inscribed walnut and bronze plaques commemorating their service to the community and board. The ceremony took place at a regular board meeting.

Those honored were Lester R. Salem, 528 Washington avenue, who served on the board for 19 consecutive years, including 11 years as president, and Eugene M. Elgan, 1209 Klein street, who was a board member for nine years. Both retired in May.

Board President Michael P. Leatherman Jr. presented the plaques and commended the two for "their outstanding leadership, devotion to school affairs and vision in helping to formulate the current well-balanced curriculum in the Venice schools."

Board members heard a report from Venice Supt. of Schools John O. Pier on the initial activities of Project Head Start, which began Tuesday in the Venice grade school on Broadway. Pier said 25 children were enrolled to date in the eight-week pre-kindergarten preparation program, which is 80% financed with federal funds.

Continue Registration
Facilities for more than twice that number are available, the school administrator said, and enrollment and registration procedures are continuing. Those eligible to attend are youngsters, five years of age, who have not yet attended school but will enter kindergarten next fall.

The cultural enrichment program, Pier explained to board members, is being concentrated on the emotional, physical and psychological development of the individual child. Dental and physical examinations will be given freely early in the program, and milk and crackers are being made available to the children each day.

Pier also told the board that 90 adults are seeking the equivalent to a high school diploma through the General Education Development program being conducted in the Venice schools, which has an average daily attendance of 65 to 70 students.

The board appointed Leatherman as its representative to the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission and it was announced that Dr. J. C. Byers will continue to act as school district physician for 1965-1966.

Refusals to Bid

In a discussion of competitive bidding practices on school supplies, Pier informed the board that he had contacted three firms which gave negative replies to his request for bids. A fourth firm identified as Blackwell-Wielandy Co., St. Louis, submitted a bid, he said.

Pier reported an estimated cost of $2450 for paper and other school supplies for the coming year, a raise of $82 over last year's figure.

Supplies and magazine bids from the Curtis Publishing Co., 5267, and from the McGraw-Hill Co., 3265, were referred to the purchasing committee. Pier said the latter bid did not include five magazines requested by the school district, while the Curtis bid omitted one of the desired periodicals.

In Gaillard Death

A verdict of suicide was returned by a coroner's jury in the death of Victor Benjamin Gaillard, 36, of 2422 Holmes avenue, at an inquest conducted Tuesday evening by Deputy Coroner Alvin Coase at the Pieper Funeral Home.

Mr. Gaillard was found dead in his garage June 30 with a bullet wound in back of his head from a .22 caliber pistol. Mr. Gaillard apparently had been dependent upon a two-year period of unemployment.

GC Steel Ranked 10th in Sales in Regional-Rankings

Granite City Steel Co. was ranked among the top 13 industrial firms in the St. Louis metropolitan area in terms of sales in 1964 in a survey published by Fortune magazine in its July issue.

It was ranked 10th in this region and 343rd in the nation. The magazine listed the top 500 firms in the nation by sales and also included assets and number of employees.

Granite City Steel climbed six places during the year as it was listed at 349th in 1963. The survey shows assets of $251,036,000 and 3382 employees.

Henry Ross Retains Tri-Mor Building

Henry Ross, former operator of the Tri-Mor Bowl, said today that he will retain ownership of the Tri-Mor Bowl building at 3701 Nameoki road, and will maintain his real estate and construction company offices in the building.

The Tri-Mor Bowl business was purchased last week by the Brunswick Corp. of Chicago, which will lease the bowling lanes in the building from Ross. Ross said Brunswick Corp. purchased the chattels and business of the Tri-Mor Bowl.

The bowling lanes now are under management of Thomas Robertson, Chicago, who assumed the management position a week ago. Robertson is a former ice skating show personality, having been with the Ice Follies, and a skating instructor. He said sev-

Record of Last Supper Will be Reviewed

The record of Jesus' last supper and his meetings with the disciples after His resurrection will be reviewed in the Bible Lesson-Sermon to be heard at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 2560 Delmar avenue, as well as at various Christian Science churches on Sunday.

The subject is "Sacrament," and promotional programs for the Tri-Mor are now being planned.

Quad-City Tax Collections Running Behind Year Ago

Granite City tax collection was running more than a half million dollars behind collections of the same period a year ago today, with both personal and real estate payments amounting to $1,173,116.

St. E. "Pat" Rich, city treasurer, said this included $242,773 in personal taxes and $930,343 in real estate tax payments for the 1964 tax year.

For a comparable period of 1963 collection last year, Rich said, the treasurer's office had taken in $323,334 in personal taxes and $1,405,224 in real estate. The city treasurer's office will continue to collect taxes locally until Aug. 14, and Rich pointed out that all local collections mean that 2% of the amount paid goes into local funds rather than county funds if the bills are not paid until the books are returned to the county treasury.

In Venice township, Frank Reidelberger Jr., town collector, reported that a total of $177,696 in both real estate and personal taxes had been collected as of Wednesday. This is 19% of the total amount of the Venice township tax bill of $2,452,615 with only three more days of the Venice township tax collection period remaining. Venice taxes are to be collected locally through Wednesday, July 14.

Nameoki town collector Gene Rottor completed collections July 2 and announced today that payments for the township totaled 697,532 against a total tax extension of $993,622 for the 1964 tax year. The Nameoki township tax books were being balanced today and are scheduled to be turned over to the county treasurer Friday.

State Aid, Fire Code Main Bills Affecting Schools

With growing indications that Gov. Kerner will sign a bill increasing the basic state school aid formula from $252 to $330 a pupil, most school districts in the state are anticipating a substantial rise in the revenue they derive from state taxes. Precise amounts have not yet been determined.

Principal impact in the Quad-Cities is expected to be on the Granite City and Madison districts.

In Madison, a possible educational fund tax rate adjustment proposal has been deferred and may be unnecessary if the bill is signed into law. In Granite City, fall staff expansion and next spring's employee contract expirations are expected to place new demands on the educational fund.

This and the "life safety code" revision are the major—though far from the only—state bills affecting Quad-City schools.

Remodeling Surveys

The code change, already signed into law, requires extensive surveys of all school buildings built before 1955 to determine how they should be remodelled to comply with new safeguards against loss of life due to flames and smoke.

The survey deadline is July 1, 1967, after which the renovations—or razing of the old schools—must begin. The revision exempts schools built between 1955 and 1965, but any new schools must meet the stricter standards.

Through legislative reports and numerous visits to Springfield during the past six months, Quad-City school officials have kept in touch with the progress of well over 100 bills directly related to school operations.

Bills Passed, Defeated

The General Assembly passed bills to expand state aid to adult education, set up a task force to evaluate school systems and establish a sex education division.

It defeated proposals to create a state board of education, change the state superintendent from an elective to an appointive office, expand educational television, appropriate state funds available for culturally deprived children, authorize teachers to bargain collectively with school districts, permit experiments on live animals in high schools and raise the minimum school dropout age from 16 to 18.

In adopting a master plan for higher education and its provisions for a network of junior colleges, the legislature launched what some view as a major future rival for elementary and secondary schools in the competition for state tax money.

MORE ABOUT

Ebersoldt Seeks

Flood control must be done on an overall basis to be effective. Kraemer said retention reservoirs must be built in the bluffs to hold back water until the regular drainage channels can handle it. These reservoirs also would catch debris and silt which can clog up creeks and ditches and cause flooding in the bottomlands, he added.

The regular channels must be improved and some new ditches added to facilitate the water passage, Kraemer said.

Dam Situation "Critical"

Kraemer called the poor condition of the Hartford Canal low-water dam north of the Quad Cities "dangerous" and "critical." He quoted the 1962 Army Corps of Engineers report to substantiate this.

"If we have another flood like in '46 or '57, it's going to go," he said. A collapse of the dam would cause water to back up the river, damage piers and bridges and cause sand-banks on the inside of the levees. The Wood River district and south would be hit by flooding.

The engineer said he was at a loss for remedies to the situation despite Ebersoldt's optimism. He fears the federal tax funds might be unavailable because of the frequent delays in the start of the bill's drainage act, "go someplace down the river."

Said he: "We're at a dead end."

Image-Polishing Afoot?

Ebersoldt suggested the levee board had taken the wrong route in seeking the funds. When the legislation suddenly appeared in the Illinois House, there was a stream of protest from public officials and taxpayers which may have shelved the bill.

"My daddy always told me to look at your own ugliness first," said Ebersoldt in the first meeting session. "This is where we've got to start right here." Through the years, the levee board has had a reputation for alleged reckless spending, lack of competitive bidding and politically-inspired hiring practices.

The people must be educated that this is the dumping ground (for water). We'll never get cooperation if we take a belligerent attitude about this. We must educate the people to the dangers of flooding," he said.

Ebersoldt said the levee district should seek to reverse public opinion and possibly attempt to get the funds through a referendum. Kraemer said: "The psychology is this: If a fellow doesn't see us digging on his street, he'll figure he's being cheated." As for passage of a referendum, "I'd bet against it."

Retail Load Drops In GC Township During Past Month

Granite City townships' retail load dropped considerably in June, it was reported this week at the office of Supervisor Nelson Hagaman.

Assistance amounting to $4102 was given 82 families with 223 persons in June, compared to relief amounting to $6086 for 104 families with 291 individuals in May. In June 1964 the totals were 72 cases with 217 persons and costs of $4290.

The supervisor and caseworker closed 46 cases during June, and 24 were opened.

Total relief costs during the current fiscal year amounted to $24,253 on June 30, compared to $26,051 for the same period in 1964.

Ban on Ice Cream Vending Trucks Goes on 1st Reading

Placed on first reading Tuesday night by Granite City council members was an amendment to the municipal code that will ban ice cream vending trucks next year.

The ban date was specified as May 1, 1966.
The amendment was proposed over a month ago by Sixth Ward Alderman Parmley, who urged the ban be started this month.
He stressed the hazardous conditions created for small children and motorists through the operation of the trucks.
Several aldermen questioned the section of the amendment which would forbid the sale of food from a motor vehicle.
Parmley and his companion alderman, Richard Fry, pointed out this was to prevent the sale of such items as hot tamales and was not aimed at sellers of fruits and vegetables. They pointed out that peddlers are permitted under another section

Sewage Treatment Plant for GC Now 25% Complete

Alderman Charles Moerlein, chairman of the Special Pollution Abatement committee, issued an ordinance in Granite City council members Tuesday night to inspect the construction site of the city's new sewage treatment plant next week. No date was set.

Moerlein said the plant now is 25% completed and he will make arrangements with authorities at the Granite City Army Depot where the plant is being built for the aldermen to make the inspection tour.

Since the treatment plant now is 25% complete, application is being made for 25% of the $408,870 federal tax grant.
Moerlein said it will be needed to help pay a $181,000 bill submitted last week by the contractor with the early arrival of equipment for the plant.

The council authorized $65,000 to be paid since that is all of the $1,200,000 revenue bond issue that is available. The remainder is in certificates of deposit and the city would lose interest if the certificates would be canceled to make full payment.

Moerlein explained the equipment delivery was ahead of the schedule prepared by the project engineer.

The treatment plant is scheduled for completion next March and the $60-cent per month charge for a residence will be started when the plant goes into operation.

Venice Building Progressing; May Burn Old School

Work is progressing satisfactorily on a $28,277 one-story brick structure adjacent to Venice grade school, Supt. of Schools John O. Pier told members of the Venice board of education Tuesday evening.

The administrators informed the board that the concrete floor and rough plumbing already have been installed by the contractor, Elmer D. Neumann of Granite City, and brickwork was slated to begin yesterday.

The building, which will house the district's administrative personnel, will include a 23x15-foot board room, three 11x15 offices, two washrooms, a 7x8-foot utility room and an 8x15-foot vault, plus storage and work space areas.

Overall size of the new building is 49x35 feet. Board members inspected samples of wall paneling to be used in the offices and discussed various aspects of the addition.

Plans were made to raze the old Lincoln high school building on South Fourth street and the board agreed to permit the Venice city council and fire department to demolish the building by fire.

Decision to burn the building was made after Pier reported an estimated cost in excess of $4500 for a contractor to demolish the structure by conventional means. It was suggested the proposed method would provide training for fire department personnel.

Pier was instructed to secure the services of a plumber to remove water lines and to cut outlets of a former school laboratory prior to remodeling the area for classrooms.

It was reported that two checks, totaling $1223, payable to Robert M. Phillips, elementary school principal, have been lost in the mail and a stop payment order has been issued. Pier was authorized to issue duplicate checks.

Nameoki Township Vote Petitions To be Filed Friday

Efforts to file petitions asking a referendum on the proposed Nameoki township sewer bond issue by late Friday afternoon will be made by area residents who have been soliciting signatures for the past two weeks, it was reported today.

Carl Maclos, a member of the recently established Committee for Economic Development of Nameoki township, said that petitions bearing far more than the 90 names required on a petition for a referendum have been secured, but that the work remains of gathering the petitions from the many persons who have been circulating them. This will be done tonight and Friday he said.

An effort is being made to file the petitions Friday so that township officials, who have passed an ordinance calling for issuance of $1,500,000 worth of sewer revenue bonds without referendum and without competitive bidding on the bonds will have an opportunity to inspect the signatures before the deadline.

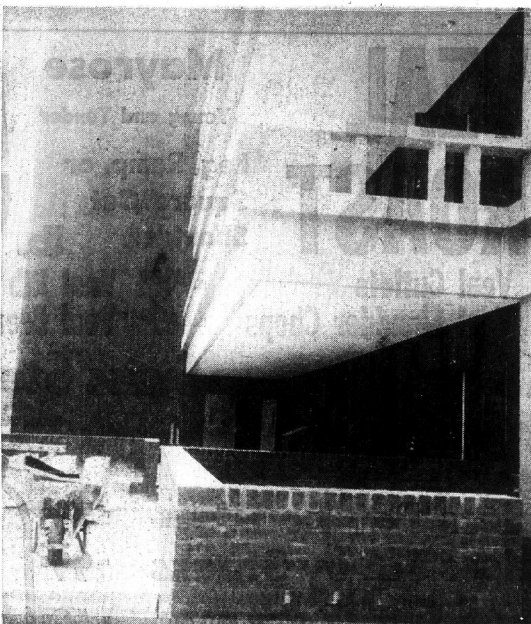

Proponents of the referendum have until next Wednesday to file the petitions. The law provides 20 days after passage of the ordinance in which to file petitions for a referendum vote. Mike Ropac and Edison J. Phelps, officers of the Economic Development committee, could not be reached today, but it was reported the committee will begin organizing the petitions today for filing tomorrow.

2 Motorcyclists Struck by Auto; 4 Other Injuries

Two Granite City youths are in fair condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital after being struck by an auto along Route Three three miles north of Pontoon road at 9 p.m. Wednesday. It was one of ten area accidents, and they were among six persons hurt this week.

The boys were on a motorcycle and were halted off the west side of the divided pavement waiting for traffic to pass so that they could turn their northbound vehicle and drive return to Granite City.

The operator of the motorcycle, James Goodman, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Goodman, 2165 Robert street, was seated on the motorcycle when it was struck. He suffered left leg fractures and other injuries.

Goodman's passenger, Eric Archer, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Archer, 2430 Grand avenue, saw the approaching auto and jumped off the motorcycle in an effort to escape. However, he was hit and knocked unconscious, suffering left knee, thigh and hip abrasions. X-rays were taken at the hospital.

State police said the northbound auto was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Boyd, 2146 Delmar avenue. Boyd, 55, was charged with driving too fast for road conditions. A trooper measured skid marks covering 49 yards and said one wheel was three feet off the pavement.

Two Drivers Hurt
James H. Allen, 42, of 2603 Lincoln avenue, and Richard Kelly, 27, of 2129 Madison avenue, were injured in a collision at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday as Allen was attempting a left turn off Nameoki road onto Edwards street and struck the southbound Kelly auto. The fronts of both cars were damaged. Allen was charged with careless driving. There was no report of treatment.

Motorbike Passenger Injured
Anthony George, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby George, was injured when a motorcycle on which he was riding was struck by a hit-and-run woman driver on Jefferson avenue, St. Louis. X-rays were taken at a St. Louis hospital and he received seven sutures for a laceration to the left knee at St. Elizabeth Hospital here this week. Operator of the motorcycle was Ted Seegers, 2712 National avenue.

A Venice boy, 12, was injured at 6:35 p.m. Tuesday when he and a companion dashed from between two railroad cars along the State street retaining wall and ran into a car driven by Willard E. Dixon, 39, of 2016 Delmar avenue.

The boy is John Hall Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of 1120 Logan street, Venice, who suffered injuries to his left side, left elbow and right knee. X-rays

Streamlined County Zoning Ordinance Nearing Completion

Revision of the Madison county zoning ordinance is nearing completion in proposed amendments to be presented to members of the county board of supervisors, Jack Clifford, zoning administrator, announced today.

The ordinance "will be a much more workable one," he said, and clarifies most sections of the ordinance.

Revised are sections on agricultural, residential, manufacturing and mobile home districts in addition to sections dealing with penalized and administration. Section on business districts remain much the same, Clifford said.

The changes are a result of numerous meetings held with various segments of the county.

Clifford said, adding that many of the recommendations and complaints heard had merit.

The amendments are to be presented to the states attorney's office for review and then drafts will be distributed to members of the county board. If approved at a board meeting on July 21, the zoning board of appeals will call a public hearing. The amendments will then be presented in final form with possible additions to the county board for final approval.

The amendments were reviewed at a meeting of the county board's zoning committee headed by C. A. Nicolet, with Wendell Durr, assistant state's attorney, Clifford and the appeals board headed by Howard Kaseberg of Granite City.

Labor Council Names New Board Trustee

Gene McGovern, representative of Carpenters Local 633, was nominated without opposition as a member of the board of trustees of the Tri-Cities Trades and Labor Council in a routine meeting last night. McGovern is to succeed E. A. Corbin of Electrical Workers Local 309 who has resigned because of his health.

The council voted an endorsement of the Metro-East Industrial Development Corporation and approved participation in the organization which has been set up to guide planning and development of industrial growth in the Madison-St. Clair county area.

Edwin Reiske, president of the council, was appointed a representative to the Metropolitan St. Louis Regional Industrial Development Corporation which was endorsed recently by the council.

Girl Tries to Cash Stolen Madison Check

An attempt to cash a check at a Wood River tavern which was stolen in a burglary the night of June 25 at the Miller Provision Co., Madison, was reported this week by Wood River police.

The tavern owner said a girl tried to cash a check made out to a Howard Keel for $112, but that she became nervous and left hurriedly.

During the burglary a check, protector and 18 blank checks carrying the name of the firm were stolen. It was reported that two similar checks had been cashed in Granite City recently.

Police are looking for the girl who left in a black car driven by a man.

The council is to elect officers in its next meeting July 21.

Six New Nursing Bills Lauded by Nurse Group

Passage of six nursing bills during the closing days of the Illinois legislature "marks the most important advance in nursing care and public protection in 15 years," Vice-President of the Illinois Nurses' Association said today.

"When enacted, these measures will help hasten the supply of nurses needed in Illinois and help assure the public of safe nursing care," explained Josephine A. Brandt, director of nursing at Moline Lutheran General Hospital.

"INA has long supported revision of the antiquated nursing act, and we are pleased that bipartisan support in the legislature successfully carried them through this session."

The most important bills provide for expanded nurse education to more students by revising education requirements, require mandatory licensure for all practical nurses, and prohibit Illinois operations of commercial mail-order courses for practical nursing.

INA was joined in support of the legislation by the Illinois Hospital Association, Illinois Nursing Home Association, Licensed Practical Nurses Association of Illinois, Illinois Department of Registration and Education, Committee of Nurse Examiners, Illinois Department of Public Health, Illinois Department of Mental Health, Illinois Conference of Catholic Schools of Nursing, Diocesan Directors of Catholic Hospitals and the Chicago Council on Community Nursing.

GC Accident Rate Continues Upward Trend

A six-month study of traffic crashes this year in Granite City compared to the first half of 1964 shows increases in all three categories—number of accidents, injuries and deaths.

Police department records completed this week for the first half of 1965 list 779 accidents with 250 injuries and three fatalities, while for the first six months of 1964 the totals were 744 accidents, 224 injuries and two deaths.

The city's daily accident average went up two points, from 4.1 per day for the first half of 1964 to 4.3-a-day this year.

Police also noted the sharp increase in injuries and that the number of fatalities—3 reduced in May—was the entire total during 1964.

Could Hit 1000 This Year
Projected, the city could have a traffic crash total topping 1000 by Dec. 31, while last year there were 1514 accidents in the city for all of 1964. Police are making no predictions for injuries or fatalities.

The city's newly-formed Traffic Study Commission is hopeful of correcting hazardous conditions along major thoroughfares, and the new budget also includes the purchase of a second radar speed unit.

Police officers note that with crackdowns on traffic violations, follow-up by stiff fines for major violators, the number of traffic accidents declines.

A breakdown of 1965 accident statistics by months, listing the numbers of crashes, injuries and deaths in that order, follows: January—160, 42 and one; February—128, 43 and one; March—158, 52 and 0; April—106, 33 and 0; May—117, 48 and one; and June—110, 32 and 0.

Cave-In-Rock Legends

JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University

The Cave-In-Rock region once held a fascination for early counterfeiters. A generation after Duff's career had ended there, another vendor of spurious money named Sturdevant came to play his trade and to become another of the area's legendary figures.

Sturdevant told little about himself and less about his methods. Some say he did not even counterfeit, that he bought his fake money from a producer and resold it, wholesale fashion, to men who placed it in circulation.

Since Sturdevant is recorded as having been an artist, a skilled engraver and capable mechanically, one can reasonably suspect that he had a hand in the actual counterfeiting.

Sturdevant chose to live in a secluded manner. He was grave, quiet, inoffensive in his manner. He had an excellent farm, and his house was one of the best in the county. Sturdevant was said by some to derive his profits from supplying confederates with counterfeit coins and counterfeit notes for which they paid $16 legal money for each $100 in counterfeit.

Passing Procedure
Purchasers were not supposed to pass the notes in the county.

A short time later Fink was killed by another man far up on the Missouri river where he had gone in charge of a trapping-trading party. Fink was perhaps the most colorful figure in the history of the lead boat on our Western Waters. He was a frequent visitor at Cave-In-Rock.

Another legendary figure, Shadrack Jackson, still remembered by some, was of the crusader and not the robber kind. He often is referred to as "Shady" Jackson. At one time Jackson, sometime a blacksmith or preacher, published a newspaper at Cave-In-Rock. His motto was, "The pen is mightier than the sword."

He wrote a biography of a local character, entitled the book, "Logan Bell, the Outlaw of Southern Illinois." It was this Shadrack Jackson, according to tradition who became the principal character for Alice Hegan Rice's "Mister Opp." Mr. Kerr, banker at Cave-In-Rock, has a letter from Mrs. Rice to substantiate this fact.

Big Harpe in his later years, explaining his career of crime, is supposed to have said that it was because he was treated so badly. They also believed in predestination, and this belief is somehow thought to have influenced them. Again, just how is not explained.

A later story will take up the career of these brothers and their associations with the "crime wave" at Cave-In-Rock.

Infamous Harpes

Perhaps the most appalling account of crime in all the middle west is that of the Harpes. The worst tales about the Harpes, some of which are not documented, do not in the least bit exceed in depravity those fully documented. The horrors and brutality of their crimes are almost beyond comprehension.

The Cincinnati Literary Gazette, at an early date commented upon the accounts of some of the crimes charged against the Harpes and related by Judge James Hall. The Gazette refused to publish them, saying that they were too horrible to be true. The same paper later printed a retraction and agreed that even the most horrible portions of the stories related were true.

Macajah or Big Harpe and Wiley or Little Harpe, brothers, were natives of North Carolina. Their father was a Tory, one loyal to the British during the Revolutionary War. This brought upon the family the definite dislike of their neighbors and is suggested as a principal cause that turned the brothers to a career of crime. Just how is not explained.

Boating Fun Can Be Hazardous

Compared to the way Americans have taken to pleasure boating in recent years, the proverbial duck in a rowboat or verbal duck in a model of yachting in its affinity for water. One of the fastest growing forms of outdoor recreation, boating this year will attract more than 40 million Americans.

"While this growing interest in a popular water sport is to be cheered, it also boosts the risk of increased water accidents and drownings," local YMCA officials have commented in discussing their 1965 water safety campaign.

"As the number of boats on our waterways goes up, so do the chances for mishaps. About eight million boats are crowding inland and coastal waters, and the number keeps rising."

As part of its yearly campaign for water safety, the YMCA has set up units of boating safety to swim first.

"That many boating fans will ignore it, however, is unfortunate. The lucky ones will get by. The unlucky ones won't and will contribute to the total of nearly 7000 drownings predicted for the United States this year."

Based on nearly 30 years of experience in water safety, the YMCA has set down basic guidelines designed to keep the "pleasure" in pleasure boating.

"First, learn to swim. Make sure you are prepared for emergencies while afloat, and avoid going out alone."

Use Life Preservers
"Every boat should carry some kind of approved life preserver. There are many types available, ranging from simple floating cushions to full size 'Mae West' life jackets."

"Small children should never be allowed in a boat without life preservers, no matter how well they can swim. Strap them on youngsters the moment you step aboard and don't take them off until they're safely ashore again. However, careful you may be, children sometimes do fall overboard, and boats will capsize at times."

Know your boat as motor, or your regular equipment is recommended.

When entering or leaving a small boat, especially rowboats, the aquatic experts advise, "step only at bow or stern ends. Stepping into the middle can tip the boat."

the boat and overturn or swamp it. And, for your own safety, never stand up in a rowboat or canoe while afloat.

"Horseplay in a boat has been the cause of more than one tragedy," experts have warned. If you must be a showoff, do it ashore when your shenanigans are less likely to endanger the lives of yourself and others."

Swimming From Boat
"Swimming off a boat is fun, but it's also dangerous. Never dive from a boat. Slide over the side and climb back in over the stern. If you fall, hang on to a rope fastened to the boat."

Rough water and storm weather are dangers every boater should guard against, warns the YMCA.

"If you're going to spend any time afloat, learn to read and heed danger signals and keep up on weather reports. If the weather is threatening, keep your boat tied up until it calms."

If you do get caught in a sudden squall or storm in open water, head at once for the more protected shoreline.

"Most small boats will float when tossed about by waves and can support several persons. If your boat overturns, remain calm. Hang on. Swim or later, another boat bound to come along and pick you up. Trying to swim to shore in most cases is an unnecessary risk, even for good swimmers."

Courtesy Rules
"I should go home, saving not only for safety but to add to the enjoyment of boating."

"Every boat should carry some kind of approved life preserver. There are many types available, ranging from simple floating cushions to full size 'Mae West' life jackets."

"Small children should never be allowed in a boat without life preservers, no matter how well they can swim. Temporary parking restrictions in the vicinity of Wilson Park during festivals and special events will be considered by Granite City council members, who took note of serious traffic congestion problems that occurred on narrow streets Monday night after the Fourth of July celebration fireworks display.

The council adopted two ordinances setting parking restrictions in other areas of the city—two narrow streets in Lincoln place and a 30-minute zone on Illinois avenue.

Alderman Sternberg pointed out that cars almost blocked streets in the Laiders Park subdivision adjacent to Wilson Park and other narrow streets in a wide area around the park Monday night.

Need Fire Lanes
"We've got to keep lanes open for traffic to move and also to provide a fire lane for city emergency equipment, and you can't do that on 25-foot subdivision streets if cars are parked on both sides," he pointed out.

The alderman suggested the city prepare to avoid the problem in the future by installing posts in the areas for temporary no-parking signs to be placed as needed.

Alternate one-year parking limited to the 1800 and 1700 blocks of Spruce street and the 1700 block of Maple street in Lincoln Place.

Success in Other Areas
The system has proven successful along Chuyra street and in the 2400 block of Adams street and might be developed more widespread as the city new Traffic Study Commission progresses with its program.

Street Supt. Warfield was assigned the task of placing no-parking signs to select which side will be open for parking during the first year. The no-parking restriction is switched each year.

A 30-minute parking zone was established for 50 feet on west side of Illinois avenue north from West 21st street.

$10,929 City Bills
Approved by Council
A $10,929 bill list for one week was approved Tuesday night by Granite City council members. The largest bill was $1878 paid to Illinois Power Co. for street lighting during June. Other power bills amounted to $417 for the fire stations, animal shelter, library, city hall and sanitary sewer lift stations. Also approved was the half-month payroll—$37,875.

REFRIGERATE PERISHABLE FRESH VEGETABLES

Perishable fresh vegetables, such as spinach, lettuce, broccoli, green onions, asparagus, and Brussels sprouts, keep best at home when refrigerated, preferably in the hydrator. Because of its design, this section permits a little circulation of air but retains the moisture in vegetables.

Retaining the moisture in vegetables helps them keep their vitamin A and ascorbic acid (vitamin C) as well as their crispness and flavor.

After five days at standard refrigerator temperature (about 40 degrees F.), leafy, dark-green vegetables and broccoli lose about half of their original ascorbic acid. Although the loss sounds large, deep green, leafy vegetables have such a high initial value of ascorbic acid that they are still good sources after this substantial loss. They can be expected to provide more ascorbic acid than freshly harvested snap beans, and perhaps more than fresh tomatoes.

Green peas hold their nutrients best if left in the pod until ready to use. If you shell them, put them into plastic bags before refrigerating.

Cabbage is a more stable source of ascorbic acid than most other leafy vegetables. If kept in cold storage at temperatures below 40 degrees F., it retains three-fourths or more of its ascorbic acid for as long as two months.

Among other vegetables that retain ascorbic acid well are peppers, snap beans, lima beans and tomatoes. Tomatoes bought or picked before they turn red keep their nutrients best if they are ripened out of the sun at room temperature. Do not ripen to-matos on a hot window sill or in the refrigerator. The bright red color does not develop when the temperature goes above 85 degrees F. for very long. And tomatoes become soft and watery and subject to decay if ripened in the refrigerator. Ripe, firm tomatoes held in the refrigerator at or cool room temperature for several days do not lose much of their ascorbic acid. But when they become overripe, the loss of ascorbic acid is rapid.

WHEN YOU FREEZE FRUIT
Be sure to leave space at the top of the package or container when you prepare fruit for freezing. The space is important whether you cover the fruit with sirup or mix sugar with a juicy fruit. It allows room for the contents to expand during freezing and prevents package damage. Leave 1/2 inch for a pint container and 1 inch for a quart container.

Work with small amounts of fruit at a time so that the proportion and packaging can be completed promptly. Remember, the shorter the time between harvesting and freezing of fruits, the better they will be. The temperature of freezer storage should be 0 degrees F. or lower to maintain the best quality in fruits and vegetables.

PRESSURE SAUCEPAN REQUIREMENTS FOR CANNING

Young homemakers who are canning vegetables for the first time often ask about the use of pressure saucepans for processing non-acid vegetables. There are two requirements to remember in using the equipment:

The pressure saucepan must have an accurate gauge or indicator for controlling pressure at 10 pounds (240 degrees F.). Twenty minutes must be added to the time required for processing the vegetables in a pressure canner.

SELF-REFREESTING
REFRIGERATORS NOT
SELF-CLEANING

Frost-free and automatic defrosting refrigerators require cleaning. They should be cleaned every two to three weeks.

Freight Tonnage In June Sets All-Time Record

An all-time record in the volume of freight tonnage clearing through the Chain of Rocks canal was set during June with a total of 3,497,850 tons of commercial freight moving up and down river. The figure is 130,383 tons higher than the previous record for any single month, set in October 1964.

Shipment of grain and coal accounted for a big part of the total tonnage during June, with 1,436,400 tons of grain moving down river to the Gulf, and 12,600 tons of grain moving upriver. Coal shipments moving upriver totaled 671,050 tons, with none going downriver. The total tonnage was in commercial freight. The June shipments increased to 15,950,502 tons the total amount of freight to pass through the locks this far this year, according to the report of the U. S. Corps of Army Engineers. This is 1,844,559 tons above the total freight movement at the same time last year.

The report shows that 794 towboats and 370 barges passed through the locks during June, with 11 passenger boats and 265 private recreational boats also using the locks. United States boats passing through the canal included 11 two boats, 75 barges, and 1,844,559 tons.

Coasting refrigerators require minimum care. But self-defrosting does not mean that they are self-cleaning.

You should follow these suggestions for keeping these refrigerators in top shape. Clean up spilled foods and liquids immediately to prevent them from leaving their mark and to keep food odors from developing. Clean the entire refrigerator periodically. An occasional wash-down with a solution of baking soda and warm water (two tablespoons to a quart of water) followed by a clear rinse and dry-off helps to keep inside walls and door linings clean and sweet smelling. Remember to check the frost-collecting pan. Because volatile food odors pass off in the defrosting process, this pan needs periodic washing to keep it clean and odor free. Consult your instruction booklet for the location of the pan. Wash the new refrigerator exterior like older models—with mild suds and water; then rinse and wipe dry. Refer to the manufacturer's use and care booklet for complete cleaning instructions.

Meter Fees for First Six Months Below Last Year

Parking meter fees and fines collected by Granite City during the first six months of the year total $18,357, or $937 less than the total for the same period a year ago, according to statistics in the office of City Comptroller John Doher. Collection of meter fees during each of the six months of this year was less than those of corresponding months in 1964, records show, while fines increased in several instances.

Offstreet Parking Lots

City officials attribute recent reductions in meter income to the increased use at available offstreet parking lots. Thus far this year, the city has collected $37,600 in parking meter fees, compared to $18,035 during the same period a year ago. During the same six months, fines totaled $1296, while those for the first six months of 1964 amounted to $1271. Thus the total income from parking meter fees this year has totaled $18,357, compared to $19,294 for the first six months of 1964.

Meter fee collections this year included $2175 in January, $2633 in February, $3143 in March, $2736 in April, $2828 in May and $3543 in June. Last year fee collections were $2276 in January, $2683 in February, $3559 in March, $2833 in April, $3300 in May, and $3644 in June.

Farm Column

By Truman M. May
Madison County Farm Adviser

Agricultural Statistics For County Ready Soon

Agricultural statistics for Madison county will soon be available in a single bulletin.

The bulletin, Agricultural Statistics for Madison county, is a grouping of county statistics covering a long period of years and recent township data. It has been compiled by the Illinois Cooperative Crop Reporting Service to better serve the needs of local people. County agricultural statistics are essential not only for the county itself, but because the county represents a functional segment of the State's economy.

In addition to detailed tabular material, the 46 page bulletin includes a short history of Madison county, and discussion of soils, roads, land area and use, climate, farms by economic class and size, cash receipts and expenditures.

The Illinois Cooperative Crop Reporting Service is supported and directed by both the Illinois and U. S. Departments of Agriculture. According to Robert H. Moats, Statistician in Charge, our State-Federal partnership makes possible county and township figures as well as more comprehensive statistics at the state level.

Copies of the bulletin may be obtained without charge at the farm adviser's office within the next few weeks. Persons wanting copies may send their requests by mail to the farm adviser's office at Edwardsville and the books will be sent as soon as we receive them.

Winter Barley Variety

A new variety of winter barley, Harrison, produced about half again as much per acre as ordinary barley in a test grown by Bergmann-Taylor Seeds, St. Jacob. The Harrison yielded at the rate of 92 bushels per acre, the common barley 64 bushels.

Similar yields were produced with Harrison barley in the St. Jacob community by Edgar Heck, 86 bushels per acre and Lester Schoeck, 82 bushels. Each had 12 acre field of the barley.

Teams in the county 4-H club softball league have been playing since early June, with 13 teams in the league. Games are played and directed by both the Illinois men and Legion Park at Alhambra on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings until Aug. 12. There will be no games the evening of July 26 and 27, dates of the county 4-H club show at Highland. There are two games each evening, starting at 8 p.m.

The winning team in the league will enter district competition with district winners playing in the finals of the Illinois Farm Sports Festival sponsored by the Illinois Agricultural Association and the Extension Service.

The Grant Prairie 4-H club has been county champion the last two years. Last year they won third place in the state finals and two years ago they were fourth in the state 4-H competition.

Twenty varieties of pasture plants, mostly grasses, are being grown in a demonstration plot on Southern Illinois University land in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service and the Extension Service. The plants show some interesting differences and interested persons are invited to look at them. The plot is on the west side of the bluff road, just north of St. Paul's E. and R. church, one mile north of Route 137 and 3 miles southwest of Edwardsville. The varieties are labeled.

Livestock Judging at Fair

Judges of livestock at the Madison County Fair July 27-31 will be J. G. Cash, University of Illinois, dairy cattle; Wayne Bates, Carlinville, hogs; Dr. R. L. Kinsler, Carlinville, sheep; H. G. Russell, University of Illinois, beef cattle and John Wunderlich, St. Louis, poultry.

Dairy cattle, hogs, sheep and poultry will be judged Wednesday, July 27. Beef cattle will be judged Thursday, July 28.

The annual Black and White Show of the Madison County Holstein Club will be held at the fair grounds at Highland the evening of July 21, starting at 7:30 p.m. All persons interested in Holstein cattle are invited. The state show will be at Altamont July 24.

A number of new plans for farm buildings and equipment have been received at the farm adviser's office from the department of agricultural engineering, University of Illinois. If you plan to do any farm building, you are welcome to study these plans and order copies if you wish. They are based on the latest recommendations and include many new ideas in practical, economical construction.

Like most crops, the tomato is subject to a number of diseases and is attacked by several insects. While not all cause serious losses, there are a number that require definite attention if the crop is to be grown with a profit. The information given in this circular is designed for home gardeners, commercial tomato growers, cannery fieldmen, and all others interested in growing tomatoes. Ask for a copy if you are interested.

County 4-H Club Show

Dates of the annual county 4-H club show are July 26-27 at the Madison County Fair at Highland. Dairy cattle, one of the main divisions of the show, will be judged the morning of Monday, July 26, according to the schedule prepared by the county 4-H club committee. Garden displays, poultry, rabbits and other projects will also be judged Monday. Other livestock, including beef cattle and hogs, will be judged the morning of July 27. Special events will be a 4-H tractor driving contest the afternoon of July 26 and a 4-H horse show the afternoon of July 27.

Last week's rains stopped wheat harvesting, but were a great benefit to corn, soybeans and other crops. At the end of the week about a third of the combining in the county had been finished. It appears the average yield will be better than last year. Several reports of more than 60 bushels per acre have been received and one small field made 71 bushels. Quality of the grain is good. Most clover seedings in the wheat fields are off to a good start, helped by rains.

Total rainfall for the year is still below normal, but soil moisture conditions are much improved. In general, corn prospects are unusually good at the present time. Corn has an excellent dark green color, especially when nitrogen was applied. Probably three-fourths or more of the

"As Chairman of the Treasury Department's U. S. Industrial Payroll Savings Committee, I have seen how employers and employees of private enterprise make a powerful contribution to our country's future while building new strength into their personal future through systematic savings from pay in U. ## Old-fangled star-spangled savings scheme

There's nothing new about U. S. Savings Bonds. Millions of Americans have built their savings plans around them for years.

And that's the beauty of it. Bonds are a proven way to save—and they carry a guaranteed rate of interest. You'll get back $4 for every $3 you invest when your Bonds are held to maturity.

Just the tax angle alone is pretty enticing. You pay no state or local income tax on E Bond interest—and you can defer federal tax until you cash your Bonds. What's more, your Bonds convert easily into cash when you need it.

There's nothing old-fashioned about the way your Bonds go to work for your country. Every penny invested helps to keep America strong and promote the cause of freedom.

Make U. S. Savings Bonds a regular part of your family's savings scheme. It's the old-fangled, star-spangled way to insure your future.

Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds

- ✓ You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity
- ✓ You can get your money when you need it
- ✓ Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
- ✓ You can buy Bonds where you bank, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work

Murder Trial May End Today

A non-jury murder trial is under way for Wilfred C. Bennett, 29, of 2800 (rear) Idaho avenue, and may be completed today in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville. It started Tuesday.

A verdict is to be handed down by Associate Judge Joseph Law, following presentation of evidence and arguments by prosecution and defense attorneys. State's Attorney Joseph Barry, Jr. is handling the prosecution.

Bennett is charged with the fatal shooting of Frank Lafata, 35, St. Louis taxi driver, last Sept. 16, off of West Ponton road north of the A. O. Smith Corp. plant. Seven continuances were granted before the hearing started.

In other court action: A motion for a new trial has been filed for Charles Earnest Nichols, 22, of Granite City, who was found guilty of murder by a jury on June 6. A decision is expected soon.

He was charged in the fatal shooting of Aaron Leggett Feb. 4 at the Arlington Heights golf course. His father, Ernest Lloyd Nichols, also has been found guilty of the murder.

A sanity hearing was set today for Paul David Kelley, 19, of Mitchell, the elder Nichols' brother-in-law, charged with the same murder.

Probation hearings are to be held at 1 p.m. Friday for persons who pleaded guilty to lesser crimes, including some from this area.

GC Council Ok's Bonds For Two Taverns

Surety bonds in the amount of $2000 written by Western Surety Co. for two taverns were approved by Granite City council members Tuesday night.

They were for Mary Dutton, the Wabash tavern, 1101 N. Springfield avenue, and William and Evelyn Kieffer for Kieffer's Lounge, 19th and Adams streets.

A similar bond for William DuBay at the Lone Acres tavern was held in abeyance, since DuBay originally had submitted a property bond signed by two property owners and the council a week ago had asked that city laws be studied to determine if such a bond was proper.

It was decided that either a surety bond or a property bond would be suitable, and DuBay will be given a choice. Council members pointed out a tavern owner could save $25 by having a bond signed by two property owners rather than by a surety company.

Working Out Fines

Wilbur Wallace, 39, of 2500 West 21th street, was ordered to work out fines and costs totaling $40 for a period of eight days Thursday by Magistrate Elliott. He was fined $10 and costs each on disturbance and intoxication charges.

Trooper Arrests Two

Elph Winfrey, 25, and Robert Moore, 30, both of St. Louis, were arrested by a state trooper at 11:35 p.m. Tuesday on charges of improper use of registration. Their cars were towed to a garage. Moore was fined $15 and costs by Magistrate Elliott.
